WHY BECOME A SPONSOR?

The conference branding provides an excellent platform for academics, professionals and researchers to network with corporate/industry players in the field of non-destructive testing. Through the conference, sponsors would be able to reach to their target audience and create brand awareness.

✓ Extensive Promotion

Announcements on WCCM and SINCE will be made to its proprietary database comprising industries, academics, professionals and researchers (worldwide) in the field of non-destructive testing. All potential attendees are directed to the conference website to get information on the conference, submit their research paper, register for the conference, check programme updates as the conference progresses.

Sponsors will be featured on the website and hyperlinks to sponsors' corporate websites which will certainly help to increase brand awareness amongst the target audience.

✓ Onsite Promotion:
